UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER
CONFERENCE & EVENTS

The University of Rochester Conference and Events Office (C&E) will maintain a Conference Summer Housing website for the use of program administrators and guests. A link to the site can be found on the Office's main page at www.conferences.rochester.edu.

Guest Registration

For security and commercial reasons the Conference & Events Office is required to keep accurate housing lists of all students and guests who are living in residence halls during the summer months. Program administrators are responsible for registering their program's guests with the Conference & Events Office, eliminating the need for individual participants to notify C&E. Changes to living arrangements prior to your arrival on campus should be communicated through your program administrator.

Students with check-in and check-out dates which differ from those registered with the Conference & Events Office will be subject to the charges associated with their reservation. Students who need to leave campus for medical or other reasons deemed appropriate by the Conference & Events Office will not be billed for their room once they have checked out. Students who choose to leave campus housing before the end of their program without two weeks (14 days) written notice to the Conference & Events Office will be billed for the entirety of their reservation or 14 days after checking out, whichever is less.

Guest Check-In

Upon arrival to campus, all guests should proceed immediately to their assigned living area (Quad Residence Halls, Susan B. Anthony Halls, or Southside Living Area) to pick up housing materials (keys, ID cards, etc.). Directional signage stating "Conference Summer Housing Check-In" with directional arrows will guide guests to their living areas, and campus maps are available for download and printing via the Conference Summer Housing website.

Area offices are open Monday through Friday during normal business hours and when extended check-in hours have been arranged through the Conference & Events Office. Any guests needing to check-in after hours may page the summer assistant on call by using the pager information located on the doors of their summer residence hall or area office.

Guest Check-Out

Information about check-out procedures will be posted and distributed to summer guests a couple of weeks prior to the end of summer programs. Guests will need to return their room keys and conference cards prior to departing campus and leave their room in satisfactory condition. Non-UR students will also be asked to return their University photo ID card. During busy check-out times, the area Residential Life Office will provide extended hours of operation. Guests who are not able to check out of their rooms during office hours will receive instructions for express check-out, including where to leave their materials and a number to call to say they have done so.

Campus Construction

Construction and renovation projects are typically conducted during the summer when there are fewer people and events on the River Campus. The Conference & Events Office and University Facilities will make every attempt to cause the least amount of inconvenience to summer guests, classes, and programs.

Questions about the projects listed below should be directed to Scott Verrenti at (585) 273-1765 or scott.verrenti@rochester.edu.

Parking

Summer guests with cars must have a valid campus parking permit to avoid fines and possible towing. Permits can be purchased from the River Campus Parking Office in Fauver Stadium for Hill Court Lot or the Medical Center Parking Office for guests living off campus and commuting to the Medical Center (Lot A) throughout the week.

At check-in, summer guests with vehicles will receive a complimentary two-day parking pass for their designated lot. It is the guest's responsibility to obtain a permit from the Parking Office before their temporary permit expires. No exceptions will be granted as summer programs should allow for time during their orientation schedule for students to obtain these permits.

Post Office and Mail Delivery

Current Rochester undergraduate students may continue to use the same CPU box as they do during the academic year. Incoming University of Rochester freshmen will be assigned a CPU box number when they arrive and will keep it throughout their four years at UR.

Students from other universities and guests wishing to receive mail must visit the River Campus Post Office (located in the basement of Todd Union) between 9:00am-5:00pm, Monday – Friday to pick up their mail. Mail for non-UR students can be retrieved at the front window of the Post Office. The campus address for non-UR students is as follows:

Name of student/guest

UR Summer Program Student

c/o Campus Post Office

Rochester, NY 14627-0002

Conference & Events will send a list of all incoming non-UR students and their email addresses to the Post Office along with their arrival and departure dates. The Post Office will individually notify students by email if a package arrives for them. Each e-mail generated is for one package, so if a student receives three e-mails, he or she has three packages. Students will need to print out these e-mails in order to retrieve their package. If there are further questions, please visit the Campus Post Office website at: <http://www.rochester.edu/mailservices/cpuhome.html>.

Students who wish to send a package of personal items to campus prior to their arrival may mail it to the Post Office at the address above.

ID Cards / Security

It is required that any student staying in campus housing for longer than one week must have a student photo ID card from the University of Rochester. In the case of an emergency, this will allow the responding security officer or medical staff to identify the student and their relationship with the University. Names of all guests staying on campus and their assigned rooms will be submitted to University Security prior to their arrival on campus.

Upon check-in, guests will receive their room assignments and a packet of information provided by the Residential Life Office (including emergency procedures, phone numbers, office hours, etc.). Guests will also receive a temporary University conference card that allows them access to their assigned residence hall. When a student gets a University photo ID, he or she must return the temporary conference card as their new photo ID card will be coded for residence hall access.

To obtain UR ID cards, students should visit the ID Office:

Current UR students must simply use their assigned NetID. Non-UR students must apply for a Guest NetID. Prior to check-in, guests will receive an email from GuestNetID_System@rochester.edu. This message may get caught in your spam filter, so if you do not receive the email please check your spam settings.

Follow the instructions in the email and click on the link, which will take you to the sign-up web page. Follow the instructions on that page. Please write down your Identification Code Word and use it in the next step. Within one business day, you will receive an approval email. Again, follow the instructions in that email and click on the link, which will direct you to a Guest NetID web page. On that page you will use your Identification Code Word to log in and complete your registration for a Guest NetID (user agreement and password initialization).

Questions about obtaining a Guest NetID should be directed to the IT Center at 585-275-2000 or UnivITHelp@rochester.edu. The IT Center is located at the back of Rush Rhees Library and is open between 8:00am-5:00pm Monday through Friday, and 12:00pm-6:00pm on Saturday and Sunday.
